

Our standard is clear:

Limited government, fiscal restraint, equal treatment under the law, inviolable property rights, the rule of law, and local control. Every amendment is judged by one question:

Does the amendment expand liberty, or does it expand government?

For detailed rationale visit:

LibertyInActionTexas.com

This Ballot Guide has been prepared by LIA board members – Jacob Wellnitz, contributors: Terri Hall, Jaclyn Merki, and Richard Bohnert

Texas Constitutional Amendments

Election Day: Nov. 4, 2025

Purpose This guide evaluates each proposed constitutional amendment on the November 4, 2025 Texas ballot through a liberty-first, conservative lens. The Texas Constitution is meant to secure rights and restrain government, not to serve as a piggy bank, a tax code playground, or a vehicle for special-interest carve-outs.

AMENDMENT 1

Texas State Technical College Funds

AMENDMENT 2

Ban on Capital Gains Taxes

AMENDMENT 3

Mandatory Bail Denial in Serious Felonies (Specified Conditions)

AMENDMENT 4

Dedicate Sales Tax to Texas Water Fund

AMENDMENT 5

Property Tax Exemption for Retail Animal Feed Inventory

AMENDMENT 6

Ban on Securities Transaction (Financial) Taxes

AMENDMENT 7

Homestead Exemption for Surviving Spouses of Certain Veterans

AMENDMENT 8

Ban on Estate/Inheritance/Gift ("Death") Taxes

AMENDMENT 9

Business Personal Property (BPP) Exemption up to $125,000

AMENDMENT 10

Temporary Exemption for Fire Destroyed Homesteads

AMENDMENT 11

Raise 65+/Disabled School Homestead Exemption to $60,000

AMENDMENT 12

Reform State Commission on Judicial Conduct (SCJC)

AMENDMENT 13

Raise General School Homestead Exemption: $100,000 → $140,000

AMENDMENT 14

Create a Dementia Prevention & Research Institute with $3B Transfer

AMENDMENT 15

Parental Rights Amendment

AMENDMENT 16

Citizen-Only Voting

AMENDMENT 17

Property Tax Exemption for Border Security Improvements in Border Counties

